The end of an era

By Mary Kay Head

In 1938 the house on Locust Street was bought for $5,500, and was used as the parish rectory. The former rectory on Waugh Street was used as a convent. In the spring of 1950 construction began on the present rectory and activity building. It was during this time that the Sisters moved into the old Locust Street house which had been remodeled for their use.

January 13, 2020, marked the end of this building that has been a part of the Sacred Heart campus for many years. As I watched the building come down, I thought of many years it has given to this parish, and yes, was a little sorry to see it go. It holds many memories for me.

When I was a student at Sacred Heart School the Sisters of the Most Precious Blood who taught in the school called this their home. I can remember coming to the back door on an errand and smelling the delicious lunch Sr. Roberta was preparing. The Sisters even gave piano lessons here.

During the short time it was used as a Teen Center, I remember a year when the teens turned it into a haunted house for Halloween. I took my kids there – Jim enjoyed it but I had to leave with Barbara. It really scared her.

This structure was used as a rectory, a convent, a teen center, a parish office, and most recently just for storage. Due to structural problems, the building was no longer fit for occupancy. And now it is no more.

However, the end of one era is just the beginning of another. This area will now become the home of the Sacred Heart Columbarium and Memorial Garden. With populations growing and land more in need, many are turning to mausoleums and columbariums as an alternative to individual burial plots in a cemetery. And Sacred Heart will soon have a place on campus to house the cremains of those who choose this alternative.

Sacred Heart to host Lenten soup suppers

By Barbara Head, Social Concerns Chair

Lent is fast approaching with Ash Wednesday on Feb. 26. This year we are going to try something new with the Soup Suppers. We are inviting everyone in the parish to be a part of this Lenten parish gathering by bringing a crockpot of soup. There will still be groups in charge of setting up and cleaning up, but they will not also have to provide the soups.

In a few weeks we will be sending out a Sign-Up Genius link to volunteer to bring soup to one or more of the soup suppers held on Wednesdays during Lent. Please consider signing up.

As long as I can remember, Lent was about what we are giving up. This year instead of (or in addition to) giving up something, add to your spiritual life. Add Wednesday to your Lenten schedule. Begin with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, which begins at noon and continues until 5:30 p.m. You can come any time to spend some time in prayer. Then continue with Benediction at 5:30 p.m., which is immediately followed by Mass. After Mass head to the Activity Building to share fellowship and a simple meal of soup.

Each person bringing soup for the occasion brings whatever kind they wish to share. This gives us a great variety to sample and choose from, and often come home with new recipes to enjoy. Please watch for the Sign-Up Genius and plan to participate.

The Lenten soup suppers began at Sacred Heart many years ago. It was the brainchild of our much-loved Sister Agnes. Let’s continue this in her honor.

This year the first Soup Supper will be on March 4 (we don’t schedule this on Ash Wednesday).

Social Concerns will be in charge of setting up and cleaning up. This Lent please plan to join us for prayer, fellowship and food (or any part you are able to participate in), and make this a special Lenten journey.

Lent begins Wednesday, Feb. 26

Ash Wednesday schedule

7:00 a.m. Mass with distribution of ashes
12:10 p.m. prayer service with distribution of ashes
1:00 to 5:30 p.m. Adoration and Benediction
4:30 to 5:15 p.m. Reconciliation
5:30 p.m. bilingual Mass with distribution of ashes

Collection of palms

All are invited to bring blessed palms back to church so that they may be burned to be made into the ashes used on Ash Wednesday. Baskets for the collection of the palms will be in the church from Feb. 15-25.

Our Knights need our help

By Crissy Volkman, Ladies Auxiliary

We are very fortunate here at Sacred Heart to have a Knights of Columbus Council that is very active in our parish. They are often called in to set up the Activity Building for various functions – such as the annual Christmas Bazaar. They help the Garden Angels keep our grounds beautified, they are very involved with the annual parish picnic, and they offer many opportunities for the parish to gather and share a meal. Their Handyman Ministry has provided help with projects around the home or in the yard for many people.

Now they could use our help once again. This is our opportunity to step up and assist them. What could we do? We could provide desserts for their Lenten Fish Fries.

We have two fish fries this year, the first on March 6th and the second on April 3rd. To assist with filling the needs for desserts, a sign-up genius has been designed. You can go to it by emailing Crissy Volkman at vetsudentcm@gmail.com. She will then send you the Sign-Up Genius invite where you can see the needs of each fish fry and sign up for what you would like to bring. Also a parish-wide email containing the link to sign up will be sent out two weeks before each fish fry. The sign-up sheet first lists a sign up for the March 6th fish fry, and below that the list repeats for the April 3rd fish fry. You can sign up to bring desserts for one or both dates.

The numbers attending the fish fries have grown every year, meaning more and more desserts are needed. It has been estimated needed.

Eternal Rest

Patricia Margaret Hearden, 1941 - 2019

Patricia Margaret (Bouche’) Hearden was called home by Our Lord on November 8, 2019, in Allouez, WI, after her courageous battle with Alzheimer’s Disease. Her final journey epitomized how she lived her life – with unwavering faith, strength, courage, laughter, love and a fierce commitment to her family and friends.

Patricia was born in Menominee, MI, on March 17, 1941, to Ralph and Mary (Schumacher) Bouche’. As a St. Patty’s baby, she always wore her emerald green and “Kiss Me I’m Irish” buttons with pride and joy. She grew up quickly in Marinette, WI, as she helped to raise her four younger siblings. She also loved to sing, dance, and cheer. She graduated from Marinette Catholic Central in 1959. Her childhood instilled in Patricia the importance of faith and family, the value of hard work, the beauty of connecting with new people, and the healing powers of a good party.

On June 11, 1960, Patricia married the love of her life, Richard Patrick Hearden, Sr., in Marinette, WI. Together they built a beautiful home and family, and modeled how to dedicate our hearts to God through prayer, how to choose love, and how to open our lives and homes to others.

Patricia loved people, had a gift for creating community, and was driven to care for anyone in need. She put this gift to use through work and church. She worked for nearly 30 years at West Side Chiropractic Clinic and served many as a home healthcare provider. She made each patient feel special as she competently and lovingly took care of them. She was also a beloved and dedicated member of St. Matthew Catholic Church in Allouez where she regularly volunteered in the parish offices, warmly greeted parishioners on Sundays, and sang in both the Sunday and Funeral Choirs.

Her greatest passion was her family and she put every ounce of love into them. She kept everyone connected, attended countless events, and supported them. Their home remained a hub of love, laughter, and fellowship. Even in her illness, Patricia continued to bring her family and dearest friends together.

Patricia is survived by her husband: Richard; six children: Laura (Harold, Jr.) Samorian, Richard, Jr. (Sandipa), Mary (Tim) Gantz, Cara (Rob) Fowler, Kerri (David) Graham, Sean (AiMee); and her “Number Five” Andrea Hearden; 16 grandchildren; and five great grandchildren. She is also survived by her beloved sisters and brother: and her many cherished nieces and nephews.

Patricia will be greeted in Heaven by her parents, Ralph and Mary Bouche, and her lifelong friend, Joan Miller.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Matthew Parish in Green Bay, on Monday, November 11, 2019 at 6:00 pm with Rev. Bob Kabat officiating. Interment took place at Allouez Catholic Cemetery.

Patricia/Pat/Patty/Mom/Grandma/Gimi: We promise to carry on your commitment to Faith, Family, and Service by staying connected and opening our hearts and homes to those in need of love. We know you are smiling proudly from above.

Fish fry help

that over 400 desserts were served at each fish fry last year, so that is what is needed for each fish fry this year. If the numbers of attendees continues to grow, then even more would be needed.

It has been noted that fruit pies and fruit desserts are by far the most popular – especially pecan and cherry, so if you are not sure what to bake, please consider this. You Can’t Cook? Don’t despair! Frozen ready-made pies are acceptable as donations this year too! An example would be anything from Marie Callender’s as these are already prepared and just need cooked. If you choose to donate a frozen pie, please deliver it early enough to allow time to cook and cool before serving. Please remember that all types of desserts are welcome and needed!

The desserts may be taken to the kitchen in the Activity Building at Sacred Heart. For the March 6th fish fry, they can be dropped off on March 6th at the Activity Building until 11 am and after that please bring them to Tolton high school.

Ounce of Prevention

February is Heart Month

By Sarah Eber, Health Ministry Committee

Did you know that people who have close relationships at home, work, or in their community tend to be healthier and live longer? One reason, according to the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute (NHLBI), is that we are more successful at meeting our health goals when we join forces with others. NHLBI launched the #OurHearts movement to inspire us to protect and strengthen our hearts with the support of others. Here are some facts, how-to tips, and resources to inspire you to join with others to improve your heart health: Heart disease is the leading cause of death for both men and women in the United States. About 90 percent of middle-aged people and more than 74 percent of young adults have one or more risk factors for heart disease, such as diabetes, high blood pressure, high blood cholesterol, or being a smoker or overweight. Having multiple risk factors increases your risk for heart disease.

Feeling connected with others and having positive, close relationships benefit our overall health, including our blood pressure and weight. Having people in our lives who motivate and care for us helps, as do feelings of closeness and companionship.

Follow these heart healthy lifestyle tips with your friends, family, coworkers, and others in your community and you will all be heart healthier for it:

- Be more physically active.
- Maintain a healthy weight.
- Eat a nutritious diet.
- Quit smoking.
- Reduce your stress.
- Get enough quality sleep.
- Track your heart health stats.

You don’t have to make big changes all at once. Small steps will get you where you want to go.

Move More:

- Invite family, friends, colleagues, or members of your community to join you in your efforts to be more physically active:
  - Ask a colleague or friend to walk with you on a regular basis, put the date on both your calendars, and text or call to make sure you both show up.
  - Join an exercise class at your local community center and bring a neighbor along. Carpool or walk there together to make it a regular date.
  - Grab your kids or your parents, put on music, and do jumping jacks, skip rope, or dance.
  - Make your social time active and encourage everyone—family and friends alike—to think of fun activities that get you off the couch and moving.

Track your heart health stats, together: Keeping a log of your blood pressure, weight goals, physical activity, and if you have diabetes, your blood sugars, will help you stay on a heart healthy track. Ask your friends or family to join you in the effort.

Council members joined with the Parish Ladies to set up the Activity Building on December 4th for the annual Ladies Bazaar and Bake sale. Knights aided the Ladies by setting up tables, helping place tablecloths on the tables and carrying Bazaar items from the upstairs room to the tables on the main floor. When the work was completed, the Knights provided pizza and drinks for all in attendance. The Bazaar and Bake Sale is the major fund raiser for the Parish each year.

As we begin a new liturgical year, the second grade PSR class has been quite busy preparing for sacraments. Just before Christmas break, we began our preparations for First Reconciliation which the PSR students will celebrate on Sunday, Feb. 2, at 10:00 a.m. in the church. Parents and their child are invited.

From this, along with classroom preparations, we will discern if the child is ready for the sacrament of First Communion. Preparations and instruction for First Communion will begin this month. The date for the First Communion celebration will be Sunday, April 26, at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Families may also schedule their own individual date and time. This can be done by contacting the church office. We ask that these be scheduled after Easter and before Pentecost.

All students must have a baptismal certificate on file with the church office. Also, if your child is not a PSR student but attends OLLIS and would like to join the group celebration on April 26, please contact Maria Cox or Sr. Francine at the church office.

As a community, please pray for all second grade students as they grow closer to God through these two sacraments.

Life Teen News

By Tyler Peterson, Life Teen intern

Our first Life Night of the semester was a success! We had a lot of fun playing various card games, eating pizza, and catching up after our long break from Life Teen. We also sang a couple praise and worship songs at the end! We have a couple sign ups open now: one for high schoolers to help with Luke 18 (April 3-5) and one for Steuben (July 17-19). These sign ups, as well as more information about the actual events, are in the weekly email as well as on the CoMo Life Teen Facebook page!

CoMo Life Teen is also planning on taking a small group of teens to the Midwest March for Life on Feb. 1. Please pray for the parents of unborn children and for the children themselves. It’s really empowering to see our teens standing up for life, and we hope to continue to address human dignity with the teens.

Confirmation classes are moving along! Our January class was a Q&A, and the teens asked some pretty good questions - I think they learned a lot about the Trinity, Mass, and free will! Keep updated with emails from Renee regarding when the various requirements are due.

As a reminder, this semester CoMo Life Teen is starting a new program called Encounter. It aims to get our students together more often than just once a week at Life Nights and to be a more casual time focused on Scripture as well as topics that aren’t broad enough for Life Nights! We are hoping that students can also have some time at the end of each night to do homework or otherwise just hang out with each other and our Core Team! Encounter will be every other Thursday from 7-8:30 p.m. in the Newman Center’s Aquinas room. We start on January 30.

Following our Lady’s lead

February is upon us! This month we all feel a longing in our bodies, minds, and souls for the warming sunlight of spring. May we introduce you to the Sonlight for your soul?

February 11 is the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. Catholics celebrate this day, not so much in worship of Mary, as is often the criticism of other religions, but as the time when Mary made herself known through a young person… a kid! To redirect people who were losing sight of the kingdom of heaven. She reminds people everywhere to let the Son shine on our faces! Not just the warmth from the big yellow ball in the sky, but the light of the Son.

In this year of 2020, this feast is an open window to let the light of Jesus’ teachings in our hearts as we hear them at Mass. This is a great time to read the gospels that reveal Jesus’s teachings, letting the spirit move our hearts to know what God needs from us now to share that light with others. Just as Mary reminded the world of the Immaculate Conception and the coming of light to a world full of darkness, she does this for us now in our dark world. She continues to show us the light of Christ.

This month, take time to think about the messages from Our Lady at Lourdes. Say a rosary, thinking about the mystery of light. Let the Son shine on your face and burn in your heart, so that His love and light are reflected in all you say and do. Like Mary, we can all be that window to let the Son shine warmly on people around us.

Knights, Parish raise $5k for Puerto Rico earthquake victims

By Rick Clawson

A series of earthquakes in late December and early January left at least one person dead, multiple people injured, and hundreds of thousands affected in Puerto Rico. Homes, churches, and other buildings were damaged. Communities lost electricity and water. The southern part of the island was struck the hardest.

Sacred Heart parishioner and Knight of Columbus Jorge Lugo-Camacho is from Puerto Rico. In fact, Jorge is from one of the cities which was severely hit by earthquakes. He contacted the Knights of Columbus in his home town to ask what was needed and how we can help. The people there need many basic necessities, including items such as soap, shampoo, blankets, pillows, baby diapers, toilet paper, hand sanitizer, bug repellent, ibuprofen, and more.

At the January business meeting, the Sacred Heart Knights of Columbus decided to send $1,000 in aid to the Knights in Puerto Rico for them to use to help their community. During the weekend of Jan. 18/19, appeals were made at all Masses for donations from the parish to supplement this amount and an additional $4,000 was raised. The monies will be wired to our brother Knights in Puerto Rico, who will buy relief supplies for local residents, starting with the neediest people in the community.

Thank you to all who contributed to this worthy cause. Your generosity is a demonstration of how we are in fact a communion of the faithful.

Followin in His footsteps

By Mary Kay Head

When Ron and Colleen Meyer, of Sacred Heart’s Roamin’ Catholics fame, first mentioned a trip to the Holy Land, I knew this would be the trip of a lifetime, one I certainly did not want to miss. I immediately said, “Count me in.”

I mentioned in our last issue that we visited 23 churches in our travels as well as many sites that before I had only read about. But actually walking where Jesus once walked was an experience I will always hold dear.

Even though we departed from St. Louis on Nov. 4 and returned there on Nov. 14, an 11 day span, our touring only spanned eight days. And those were a very full eight days. We spent five nights in Jerusalem (in Judea) and three in Tiberias (in Galilee). Consequently our visits were in areas surrounding those locations rather than chronologically following the life of Jesus. For example, Bethlehem, where Jesus was born, and Jerusalem, where he died, came first in our travels, while Nazareth where he grew up and Capharnaum, where much of his ministry took place, came at the end. However, I prefer to remember them more in a chronological order.

Even in the time of Jesus Jerusalem was a walled city, and it is still today. As the city grew, new walls were built to encompass it. The old city still retains the original walls, and is now a very small portion of Jerusalem today. As I stood on the balcony of the hotel and looked to my left, I saw the wall not very far off. Deacon Bill told me that was Bethlehem on the other side. I was surprised. I guess I still expected to travel further to the city of Christ’s birth just as the wise men did after speaking to Herod. Obviously both cities grew enough in the 2,000 intervening years to now seem connected.

To truly begin at the beginning, I would need to start with John’s Gospel: “In the beginning was the Word.” But I will start instead with the life of Jesus. To me this means with the Annunciation. We viewed his life through the churches we visited. We visited the Church of the Annunciation in Nazareth, which is said to be built over the place where Gabriel appeared to Mary. It is one of the largest and most magnificent churches in the Holy Land. We also visited the nearby Church of St. Joseph. According to tradition, it was built over the site of Joseph’s workshop. Nazareth is in Galilee which is in the northern part of Israel.

Following the Annunciation was the Visitation. This took place in Ein Kerem, which is now part of western Jerusalem. Jerusalem is in Judea which is in the southern part of Israel. As Elizabeth heard Mary’s greeting, the child within her (John the Baptist) leaped in her womb. It was this encounter that gave us a most beautiful prayer, the Magnificat. There were tablets in the courtyard of the Church of the Visitation that featured excerpts from this prayer in several languages. The nearby Church of St. John was built over the spot where the Baptist was born.

Next is Bethlehem, the birthplace of Jesus, which lies just south of Jerusalem today. The Church of the Nativity was built above the Grotto of the Nativity in which Jesus was born. Though we were unable to spend much time in the grotto, there was just something very special about being there. Our Mass that day was in the Shepherds’ Fields. It was here that the angel alerted the shepherds that a Savior was born in Bethlehem. It was our only outdoor Mass, and was beautifully simple.

As Jesus was growing in Nazareth, his family life was private. Luke tells us, “They returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.” We heard next when he turned 12 and, with his parents went to Jerusalem, as they did each year for the feast of Passover. When Mary and Joseph headed home, they found Jesus was not with them. Returning to Jerusalem, they found him three days later in the temple, “sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers.” He went home with them and was obedient to them. Then we do not hear about him again until he begins his public ministry.

This seems a good place to take a break. I will continue beginning our travels following his public life in our next issue.

The art of charitable receiving

By Miriam Hankins

The other day, I caught a portion of a Bonanza episode where Hoss was forced to ride with an outlaw. They stopped at a stagecoach station and the outlaw stole a bag full of food because he had no money to pay for it. When they stopped down the road, Hoss refused to eat the food because it was stolen, so the outlaw returned the food to the station. As they started to ride away, the station master tried to give the food to the outlaw, but the outlaw refused because he didn’t want charity. At this, the station master said he read the Bible regularly and that it said that it was better to give than to receive. He asked the outlaw, “How can I ‘give’ if you won’t take?” How, indeed.

The notion that we shouldn’t accept charity flies in the face of what we read in Scripture: “All you who are thirsty come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat. Come without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk!” (Isaiah 55). The Acts of the Apostles also relate how the first Christians behaved, giving everything to the Church to be distributed according to others’ needs. It is from John the Baptist that we are taught to share one of our coats with the person who has none.

Our American culture has deeply ingrained in us the notions of self-reliance, the rewards of hard work, pulling ourselves up by our own bootstraps, etc. Therefore, when we need something and receive it freely, we feel slapped in the face. Someone feels sorry for us and our pride is hurt. The culture of the Kingdom is completely opposite. Jesus tells us that we can only enter the Kingdom if we are like little children: dependent, humble, patient, content to know that everything will be provided.

Which path will you choose to follow? A path where your personal success allows you to look down your nose in judgment on those less fortunate (one of those seven deadly sins), or the one where we realize that everything is a gift to us. In some fashion, we are all bereft of something we need. Our material requirements could be met many times over, yet still be bankrupt in the areas that make us human and a child of God. So, when you pray this day, trust that the Lord will provide all that is needed. Just breathe a simple, sincere, humble ‘thank you’.

Proclamation of new life

By E. Jane Rutter

He opened my heart the moment I heard his cry. Tuesday, our grandson, Mason Wayne, voiced his arrival to all. His was no lamentation, no cry of discomfort or pain, but the song of life emerging; a proclamation to make way for the new. Captivated, I thank God for this gift He brings into our lives.

Just two months ago, David and I stood in the Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem with our pastor, Fr. Francis, and 40 friends from our parish. On pilgrimage together, we packed into a tour bus, read the daily readings, celebrated Mass, shared snacks, and spent time getting to know one another beyond the parish boundaries of Locust and Waugh streets. Most importantly, we sought the heart and homeland of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Walking in the land that birthed Jesus implanted me with a real sense of understanding and belonging. No longer are the scriptures epic historical dramas that I am to believe in for the reward of heaven. I - as is true of my fellow travelers – have been asked several times since returning home what I found the most moving moment in the trip. For the two months since we’ve returned, I’ve been considering that question. The two sentiments that have stuck with me since then are that:

1) Acceptance of others is the call Christ gives me. “Do not worry, my child, about being accepted by others; rather, I call you to welcome, invite, greet and accept all into the bosom of your heart”.

2) “Home is not a physical location but wherever you are with me”. Yet now, hearing our little Mason cry, I realize my faith is much more than sentiments. The Holy Scriptures are the account of man’s relationship with The Creator. Our relationship with the Father, Son and Holy Spirit and each other. They, like little Mason’s cry, are the proclamation of new life.

And so I pray: Dear God, we praise you for the Christian faithful attending the March for Life 2020 this week. Let their voices be heard as they proclaim the sanctity of life for those whose voices are silenced.

Liturgy Commission

By Lucas Volkman, Chair

The January Liturgy Commission meeting was held on Jan. 2 in the Sacred Heart library. After the opening prayer by Lucas Volkman and the approval of the minutes from the November meeting, the committee heard the parish council report from Charlie Ochoa.

Under old business, the commission recapped Advent and Christmas. Overall, both went well. The children’s choir was spread over two Masses and sat with their families. They worked well with the African choir on Christmas Day. While the flowers and decorations in the church looked good, the two white poinsettias that were ordered were damaged. Fortunately, as Judy Walker explained, there will be a sixty-dollar credit towards the Easter flowers as a result.

In further old business, Chris Vitt updated everyone that new chalices, for the distribution of the Precious Blood to the congregation, have been ordered and will arrive in January. To avoid the damages that occurred with the previous set, we will emphasize gentle cleaning and ask the company for any tips on proper washing. Previously, Sonia Potts had talked to a company about ordering a new votive candle stand. But seeing some potential issues with the firm, the commission decided to wait and see how many of the current candles are used week-to-week before expanding the number of candles. Finally, on the broken Stations of the Cross, we are working to get new numbers to replace those that are damaged and are looking into the broken legs on the corpus of station fourteen.

With new business, Chris and Sonia gave the director of liturgy report. They explained that some new ministers will be trained for
Thanks from the holiday bazaar committee

By Carolyn Steinmetz

The Bazaar Committee wishes to acknowledge the generous annual donation of $250 from the Knights of Columbus Council #14414. This was used for a cash prize for the 2019 Christmas Bazaar. Thanks very much!

The Bazaar Committee also wishes to acknowledge the generous donation of $250 from the Knights of Columbus Council #1529. This was also used for a cash prize for the 2019 Christmas Bazaar.

Special thanks to Sacred Heart’s Language Program Director, Pat Gerke, and her many tutors and students who volunteered to spend an hour after class to help with our Christmas Bazaar by “stuffing envelopes.” They helped stuff flyers, raffle tickets, and Advent schedules into envelopes in preparation for pick-up and mailing. Their participation was greatly APPRECIATED!

Raffle winners were drawn and the quilt was won by Diane Rhodes. Catherine Miller and Vicky Anaemena each won $250, and Lynn White won $200. Door Prizes were won by Susan Stolwyk, Julie Young, Nicholas Young, Michael Shuster, Paul Kanago, Mike Sarrazin, Johanna Bishop and Maria Singh. Congratulations to all the winners.

Preliminary reports show that the 2019 Bazaar brought in $17,678. A special THANKS to each and every one who helped make this a success!

Treasures found in silent auction

By Ron and Mary Freibergaush

The Silent Auction continues to be a core component of our annual Christmas Bazaar. This year’s auction offered many unique items. One of the most interesting was a rocking chair, donated by Deven and Theresa McDonald, that belonged to the sisters of Our Lady of Peace Monastery. Marie and Paul Dickerson provided a fun Broadway Brewery package. Barbara Kingsley donated a wood cross and rosary from the Holy Land. The Mr. Christmas Musical Bell Symphonia, donated by Donna Haley, attracted the most bids. In all, the Silent Auction raised over $3,700 for church operations.

We thank the following generous friends who donated items for the auction: Sam & Pat Andrews, Steve & Caroline Andriano, Bazaar Ladies, Broadway Brewery and Paul & Marie Dickerson, Dru & Kate Bunting, Rick Clawson & Glenda Kappelman, Columbia Country Club & Gene Gerke, Ron & Mary Freibergaush, Gene & Pat Gerke, Donna Haley, Tamie Herman, Charlene Jayamanne, Tim & Jan Jeffries, Chuck & Cheryl Johnson, Barbara Kingsley, Deven & Theresa McDonald, Ron & Colleen Meyer, Dave & Carolyn Steinmetz, Stephens College and Rob Doyen, Nancy Singh, John & Susan Stolwyk, Steve and Conrie Sutter, JoAnn Vessell, Lili Vianello, Lucas and Chrsiss Volkan, and Anonymous parishioners.

Social Concerns

By Barbara Head, Chair

Health Ministry: the AED in the Activity Building was stolen but there are plans to replace it. A volunteer is needed to organize the blood drive on May 3. There will soon be a published list of reminders of kitchen sanitation guidelines.

Language Program: there are classes offered by parishioners on Wed morning, Thurs evening and Sunday between masses, and a Monday night class run by the Refugee Committee. The next citizenship classes will begin in March. There were 3 successful graduates from the previous class.

Old Business

Bazaar recap: netted over $13,000 and committee would like to see proceeds go to kitchen or bathroom upgrades in the Activity Building. They could have sold more baked goods if they had them. A new person to head up the jewelry booth is needed.

Breakfast Café recap: served more people than ever before for 5 weekends, still there was lots of clothing left over. Next year only 4 weekends in November.

Food Drive Supplies: new wagon to replace shopping carts is working well.

Pro-life: baby shower last weekend yielded lots of baby items and diapers that will be delivered to Open Arms/My Life in the coming weeks.

Room at the Inn: need to emphasize that our parish is not responsible for a particular week, but want to encourage all parishioners to volunteer for a slot during any week they choose.

New Business

There is a letter from Mark Thomas asking for help with visiting and shopping type tasks for a long time parishioner in Parkside Manor. Miriam Hankins has put an announcement in the bulletin to get volunteers for a care team. If anyone is interested please contact Miriam.

Lent: Ash Wednesday is Feb 26; Social Concerns will be responsible for the first soup supper March 4th and other groups for the following Wednesdays. This year we plan to include a Sign-up Genius for the soups for which will allow all parishioners to bring soup on the night of their choosing even if they don’t belong to the group responsible for set up and clean up that week. The idea is this way some people who are part of multiple groups won’t have to bring soup more than one time. April 8th is the Banquet for the Poor.

Bunco will be scheduled soon. If you have never gone to a Bunco, plan on attending. It is a fun way to get to know your fellow parishioners while playing an entertaining way, eating great food and enjoying some adult beverages.

Our next Social Concerns meeting is Tuesday February 18 at 6:30 p.m. in the Library. Anyone is welcome to attend.

Sacred Heart Cares:
About food

By Sarah Eber, Kitchen coordinator

Sacred Heart kitchens are available for use to all ministries at Sacred Heart. We have estimated that this kitchen puts out more than 7000 meals a year. If you have ever attended meals at Sacred Heart, you know the food is awesome! If you are planning an event that involves food preparation at any of the Sacred Heart kitchens, here are a few things to remember:

Please read and review the Kitchen Safety Guidelines for Food Handlers Handbook available in both kitchens before any food event.

Always schedule your event to reserve the space through the Parish Office.

If your event includes feeding the public and/or charging for meals (this does not apply when free will donations are made), it is recommended that you attend a food handler class put on by Boone County Health Department. Whether you attend the class or not, you must apply for a temporary food permit. Information can be found in the kitchen in the Activity Building or online at https://www.como.gov/health/environmental-health/food-service-establishments/guidelines-for-mobile-and-temporary-food-operations/guidelines-for-temporary-food-facilities/. Sacred Heart is not responsible for handling this for your food event.

If you are bringing food in before the event, be sure to label it and date it, indicating the event date. Food should only be kept in the refrigerator for 3 days maximum. Refrigerator temperatures are not monitored daily. If there is a malfunction, you risk food spoilage.

Please do not store unopened canned goods or non-perishables in the storage closets. Take them home or donate them.

When your event has ended, please remove all leftovers, including partially used juices and condiments. Give them away to participants or donate them (a list of charities accepting food is posted on the refrigerator). Foods not properly labeled and dated will be thrown away or donated.

The kitchens are checked and food removed twice a week.

Please be sure you are serving food at temperatures listed below. Food handlers wear gloves when handling food, and wash hands frequently.

Together we can ensure that Sacred Heart maintains its reputation providing Christ-focused fellowship and fabulous food!

Make the Sacred Heart Columbarium your forever home

Sacred Heart has ordered a columbarium which will be placed in a garden-like area where the old office building once stood. A number of niches have already been sold. We invite you to consider purchasing a niche to make your final resting place among friends and fellow parishioners.

What Is A Columbarium?

A columbarium is a structure that has small spaces, or niches, to hold cremated remains. Cremation has been allowed by the Church since 1963. According to the Order of Christian Funerals cremated remains (cremains) are treated with the same respect given to the body from which they came. The cremains should be buried in a grave or entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium.

Why A Columbarium?

Spiritual...Since there is no Catholic cemetery in Columbia, the columbarium is a place where you and your family can be inurned in a religious setting.

Simplifies...The columbarium eliminates the pressure of choosing a burial site, casket and monument. Inurnment and memorial service can be in one location. It also offers a practical and comfortable way to make advance plans relieving your family of making difficult decisions at an emotional time.

Savings...A niche in the columbarium is significantly less expensive than an in-ground burial. The fee to reserve a niche is $1500.00. Each niche will hold the cremated remains of two people. The fee includes opening and closing the niche, the names and dates of birth and death, and perpetual care.

Location...The columbarium will be located on the church grounds in a garden setting that will provide a place of beauty and comfort where family and friends can meditate, pray and remember.

Parish Council

By Ron Meyer, Parish Council President

The meeting opened with a prayer by Father Francis. The minutes from the November meeting were approved with corrections on two typos. The permits for the demolition of the old office building are being finalized and it was noted that the building should be demolished soon. Bids will then be obtained for the memorial garden. During this process we were informed that the church campus was actually on two plats. They will have to be combined into a single plat prior to receiving a building permit. This does not hamper the acquisition of the columbarium or construction of the memorial garden. However, if a covering over the columbarium is to be constructed we will need a building permit.

The next 50/50 raffle is scheduled for the week-ends of Jan 25/26 and Feb 1/2. Proceeds will go toward the memorial garden. The council then discussed the need for future fund raising opportunities for updates to the activity building. This will be addressed at the parish assembly on 1/26.

The nominating committee reported having two candidates at this time for the next council election. A final list will be provided at the next meeting. The election will be held in March with the new members beginning their terms in April. Anyone interested in running for the parish council should contact one of the current council members.

It was noted that the current snow removal company under contract has not been as responsive to our needs as was expected. Father Francis will contact them and if their performance does not improve, we will explore other options.

The council was advised that the AED had been stolen out of the activity building. Charlie Ochoa will obtain a bid for its replacement. It was also noted that the back door to the activity building needed to be repaired or replaced to prevent future break-ins.

The meeting closed with a prayer.
If I am to answer the question, ‘How would Christ solve modern problems if He were on earth today?’ I must answer it plainly; and for those of my faith there is only one answer. Christ is on earth today; alive on a thousand altars; and He does solve people’s problems exactly as He did when He was on earth in the more ordinary sense. That is, He solves the problems of the limited number of people who choose of their own free will to listen to Him.” – Good Housekeeping (UK), 1932

“I believe that I belong to a Church that is still alive.” – The Resurrection of Rome

“I believe in the brotherhood of men; I also believe in the communion of saints. It so happens that in the street today one of these is called a truism and the other called a dogma. But to me they are both dogmatic and both true.” – Daily News, June 3, 1905
